Recognizing the Best

Sales agents were honored recently as AAA President's Elite for their accomplishments in 2007. Only 3 percent of agents in the market meet the AAA standards required to achieve the President's Elite level of service and performance. Insurance and Travel Agents honored as President's Elite were recognized for their ability to provide service and build long-term relationships with AAA members, while maintaining a positive presence in the community.

Get on the Field with the Chicago Cubs

In an exclusive travel package offered by AAA, Cubs fans can participate in a four-night vacation with past and present players at Universal Orlando Resort. Scheduled for Dec. 10-14, the tour will provide 200 fans the opportunity to attend private events at Universal's two theme parks with Billy Williams, Ryan Theriot, Lee Smith, Scott Eyre, Jody Davis, Mark DeRosa and Geovany Soto. Additional players are expected to participate as well.

Highlights of the trip include a private autograph session, breakfast Q&A, Backlot Street party and other special events. A day trip takes fans to Jackie Robinson Ballpark in nearby Daytona for an informal baseball clinic where everyone in the AAA group can hit, pitch and throw with the Cubs.
