PHILADELPHIA

Pennsylvania Horticultural Society held the first Philadelphia Flower Show in 1829 and is recognized internationally as one of the nation's premier events. The 2010 show is themed "Passport to the World" and visitors will see spectacular displays of flowers and blooms covering the globe, from India to South Africa, to Singapore, to Brazil. Guests will be treated daily to internationally inspired dance and musical performances, a World Bazaar of exotic shops as well as an International Wine & Spirits Garden in the Show's Grand Hall.
