from $205 per person, based on double occupancy

3 days / 2 nights

The United States was born in Philadelphia on July 4th, 1776 at the Pennsylvania State House, known better today as Independence Hall. This date signifies the adoption of the Declaration of Independence. The Constitution was also drafted here which laid the framework for the nation's future. William Penn, who a century earlier envisioned people of all faiths living in harmony and freedom in the City of Brotherly Love would be proud today, but his views then seemed quite revolutionary. Experience the excitement of the most British square mile in America.
